

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact:
Nicole Simpson
(208) 782-9115
nsimpson@ptius.net

Premier Technology, Inc. Awards Scholarships To Seven Local Students

Blackfoot Idaho, May 2018 – Premier Technology, Inc. is excited to announce the 2018 recipients of their Employee Dependent Scholarships. Premier is a proud supporter of education and has awarded seven scholarships to children of their employees.

Benjamin Barnard will graduate from Idaho Falls High School and plans to study Computer Networking Technology at the College of Eastern Idaho.

Braden Mangum is graduating from Snake River High School and plans to study Nursing at the College of Eastern Idaho.

Carissa Jager will graduate from Bonneville High School and plans to study Bio-Technology at Brigham Young University – Idaho.

Elexus Nochebuena will graduate from Blackfoot High School and plans to study Dental Hygiene or Physical Therapy at Treasure Valley Community College in Ontario, OR.

Emily Durback is graduating from Highland High School and plans to study Occupational Therapy at Idaho State University - College of Technology.

Morgan Smith will graduate from Blackfoot High School and plans to study Exercise Science at Idaho State University.

Macey Warner graduated from Mackay High School and is studying Nursing at the College of Eastern Idaho.